[Thus far the Gazette Extraordinary.]

On the above Occaſion the Guns in the Park were fired at Half paſt Ten, and thoſe at the Tower about Eleven, and at Twelve o'Clock on Saturday Night, Bonfires were lighted before the Admiralty and War-Office.

Ancona, May 22. A Venetian Frigate, commanded by Capt. Balovick, on meeting with an Algerine Xebeck, near the Iſle of Cyprus, whither ſhe was going as Convoy to a Number of Merchant Ships, made a Feint, as if ſhe wanted to avoid the Corſair. The Algerines immediately exerted themſelves to overtake the Frigate, which they ſucceeding in, and every Thing being prepared for boarding, the Frigate, on a Sudden, poured in ſuch a terrible Broadſide upon them, as ſhattered the Xebeck all to Pieces, and not ſo much as one Perſon on board eſcaped.

The Treaty lately concluded between the Courts of Berlin and Conſtantinople, is daily expected at Magdebourg. It is confidently reported, it contains a defenſive Alliance between the ſaid Powers, in Caſe the Court of Peterſburgh ſhould preſume to lay any Claims to Pruſſia, or detain the leaſt Part of it; which it is thought, cannot interfere with the intended Congreſs, provided his Pruſſian Majeſty ſettles his Differences with the other belligerant Powers.

Munſter, May 23. Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters are ſtill at Newhauſs, where he will remain ſome Time. According to all Appearance it ſhould ſeem as if he waited for the Motion of the two French Armies, in order to regulate his Operations. The little Advantage he had for a Moment, as it were in Heſſe, before M. Broglio's Army was aſſembled, is now pretty well over; at preſent the French have two Armies in Germany, the leaſt of which is more than ſufficient to intimidate all the Allies. We reckon that the firſt Proceedings of theſe two formidable Bodies will be to penetrate together into the Electorate of Hanover, where according to the Rules of Probability, the Enemy will not be able to make any Reſiſtance.

Hague, May 30. A Courier who was diſpatched from Peterſburgh to Prince Gallitzin, at London, undeceived us as he paſſed through this Place, with regard to the Rumour, that 40,000 Ruſſians were detached from the Army to aſſiſt the Operations of the Auſtrians in Sileſia; and we hear it marched towards the original Place of Deſtination.

Paris, June 2. The Loſs of Belleiſle, if that ſhould happen, will ſerve only to animate our Court to make new Efforts. The King wiſhes for Peace, but he would have an equitable and ſafe Peace.—The Advantages which the Enemy may gain will not facilitate the Negociations of a Peace. All the Reports of a Suſpenſion of Arms are groundleſs.

Breſt, June 2. The Squadron which is equipping here and at Rochefort, will be more formidable than has been imagined. The Court has ſent Orders to add to the Men of War fitted out at Rochefort, the Tonant, and l'Orient, each of 80 Guns, the Northumberland of 70, and the two Prames, La Francoiſe and La Baſtide. As the Diadem probably will not be got ready Time enough, the Protee, of 64 Guns, is to be ſubſtituted in her Place. The Vaillant, of the ſame Tonnage, and the Dragon, of 74 Guns, are already careened. The Hector, Le Palmier, and the Opale Frigate, of 30 Guns, Le Robuſte, of 74, and l'Eveille of 64 Guns, which are in the Vilaine, will be careened this Week, and the whole Armament ready towards the Middle of this Month. M. de Blenac is to have the chief Command.

Frankfort, June 4. A Report has prevailed here for ſome Days paſt, that M. Broglio is going to detach 20,000 Men from his Army, who are to march into Saxony; but it is more probable that he will keep all his Forces together, in order to penetrate, if he can, into the Electorate of Hanover.

Hamburgh, June 4. The People of Magdebourg are not a little apprehenſive of a Viſit from the French. The Garriſon conſiſts only of two Battalions and a Regiment of French Deſerters, who watch every Opportunity to make their Eſcape, in order to avoid falling into the Hands of their Countrymen. They are therefore never ſuffered to do Duty in the Suburbs or on the Ramparts, but compoſe the Main-guard in the City, and occupy ſome other Poſts, where they cannot get away.

Paris, June 5. Our Miniſtry are extremely attentive to the Object of the new Armament preparing in the Ports of Great-Britain; and as they preſume that it may be intended againſt the Iſle of Oleron, Orders have been juſt ſent to the Troops diſperſed upon the Coaſts of Aunis and Saintonge, to hold themſelves ready to paſs over, on the firſt Notice, to ſaid Iſle.

Mr. Stanley has conferred twice with the Duke de Choiſeuil, who is to preſent him To-morrow to the King.

Hague, June 9. When our laſt Letters came from London, M. de Buſſy had not appeared in Public, nor conferred with Mr. P. under Pretence of a Cold; which will, no Doubt, continue till he hears of Mr. Stanley's Arrival at Paris.

Hamburgh, June 9. We have Letters here from the Camp of the Pruſſians at Greiffenberg, dated the 2d of this Month, which ſay, that the Ruſſians had paſſed the Viſtula: That one Column of them, ſaid to conſiſt of 20,000 Men, were marching from Thorn to Poſen: That which had been poſted near Marienwerder was advanced to Mewa.

The Camp compoſed of 18,000 Men near Dirſchau, was moving towards Conitz and Tuchel.

General Tottleben with his Light Troops, formed a Kind of a Line above Barow, towards Tepplebourg; the Left Wing was filing off towards Friedland; and the Remainder, with the Infantry, forming themſelves very near Stolpe.

The Deſigns of the Enemy were not yet known; but in the mean while the Pruſſians formed a Chain againſt them from Colberg towards Coerlin, along the Right Side of the River Perſante; and the Light Troops were poſted at ſome Diſtance in their Front, to be ready for the Opening of the Campaign.

Hague, June 12. We hear, on the 9th Inſt. the Army of the Prince of Soubiſe was cantoned in ſuch a Manner round Weſel, as to be able to march into Camp in the Space of 12 Hours: That a Bridge of Boats was laid at Mulheim, another at Duſſeldorff, and a Third at Weſel. On the 10th, the Corps that was encamped near Weſel, croſſed the Lippe, and placed their Vanguard at Galen. The ſame Day, the Corps that had been at Duſſeldorff arrived at the Camp at Weſel. That which was encamped at Rees, was to march the 10th, and was to join the Army at Feddenbourg on the 11th. There is a prodigious Deſertion among their Cavalry; ſeveral of them have been ſeen here, with their Horſes and Accoutrements.

From the Frontiers of Sileſia, June 4. The King of Pruſſia is ſtill in his Camp near Kuntzendorff. Part of his Army, we hear, has advanced to Frankenſtein, which is not far from the County of Glatz. The Corps under the Command of General Goltze continues encamped near Glogau.

LONDON, June 1.

By the Druid Sloop, arrived on Thurſday from Belleiſle, we learn, that the Marines marched againſt the French without Powder and Ball, with their Bayonets fixed. They were bid to halt, till the Ammunition came up; but they marched forward, and deſired it might follow them. The Bravery and Intrepidity of this Corps cannot be too greatly commended; they were the firſt Body that made good the Landing on the 22d ult. and have ever ſince had advanced Poſts.

Extract of a Letter from Leghorn, dated May 15.

"The Veſtal Man of War has been very ſucceſsful; ſhe came in Yeſterday with three French Prizes from St. John d'Acre; the chief Lading of them is 252 Bales of Cotton Wool, 258 Bales of Cotton Yarn, 36 Bales of Silk, &c. And another Prize, bound from Marſeilles to Alexandria, with 17 Bales of Cloth, &c."

June 12. Letters from Hamburgh, of the 2d Inſtant, ſay, that all that has been intimated in News Papers about ſome Thouſand Daniſh Land Forces, and a Fleet of Men of War going into the French Service, was without the leaſt Foundation.

On Tueſday laſt Commodore Sir Piercy Brett returned to the Downs in the Newark, with the Minerva, Biddeford, Lynn, Otter, and Flamborough's Prize. He had been on the Coaſt of France, to reconnoitre it, upon the Report of a Body of 3000 Men being aſſembled, under a Pretence of attempting an Invaſion; but it is all evaporated into Smoke.

M. Buſſy diſpatched an Expreſs to the Court of France on Tueſday Night laſt, at Eleven o'Clock.

June 16. By a Letter from Belleiſle we are informed, that General Hodgſon, the reſt of the Engliſh Officers, and the Chevalier de St. Croix, all dined together in the Town of Palais, on Monday laſt.

It is ſaid, that Colonel Howe has had the Calf of his Leg carried off by a Cannon Ball, but is in a fine Way of doing well.

It is with Pleaſure we hear of the intended Promotion of Admirals. For, who will not rejoice at hearing of the Names, Brett, Tyrrel, Keppel, Howe, being added to the preſent Liſt?

The Induſtry, Bryſon, from Amſterdam for New-York, was attacked the Day after he ſailed from the Texel, by a French Privateer, who endeavoured to board her; but Captain Bryſon giving her a Broadſide and Volley of Small Arms, ſhe ſheered off.

By Letters from France, by the Way of Holland, we learn, that the Court ſeems diſpoſed to make Peace at any Rate, and waits impatiently for the Anſwer to M. de Buſſy's Propoſals for a Ceſſation of Arms.

Some Letters from Holland adviſe, that not only all the young People in the King of Pruſſia's German Eſtates are preſſed into the Service, but even Men of 60; and that this Step hath occaſioned a greater Apprehenſion of an Invaſion in all Parts of his Dominions, than at any Time ſince the War began.

It is reported, that Monſieur de St. Croix had 900 Men killed, and 300 wounded during the Siege.

When the Torrington Man of War left Belleiſle, there were fifty Sail of Ships of War before that Place.

The Engliſh Priſoners came out of the Citadel with the Terms of Capitulation, and joined the Camp. The French Governor alſo viſited General Hodgſon.

On Sunday laſt the Earl of Holderneſſe gave a very grand Entertainment at Sion Houſe, at which Monſieur Buſſy, and ſeveral of the Nobility, were preſent.

This Morning his Excellency Sir Joſeph York, ſet out for Harwich, in his Way to Holland.

All the Letters from Ireland and Scotland are filled with the Demonſtrations of Joy ſhewn on his Majeſty's Birth-Day, which were never exceeded on any Occaſion.

This Day an Account came, that his Majeſty's Ship the Argo, Captain King, has taken and brought to the Nore, the Marſhal Duc de Brunn Privateer, of Dunkirk, mounting 15 Carriage Guns, ſix Pounders, and 12 Swivels, but pierced for 30 Guns. She has taken 10 Prizes, and had 7 Ranſomers on board, for 4605l. This is the ſame Ship which engaged the Duke of Tuſcany, of Briſtol, for ſeven Glaſſes, when ſhe blew up.

We are told, that a Perſon lately arrived, paid his firſt Viſit to a noble Earl, of diſtinguiſhed Abilities, who acquainted him, that he muſt wait on the Rt. Hon. —— to whom we principally owe our Unanimity and Succeſs; which he did, and, it is reported, talked of ſomething like an Indemnification for Ships taken before the War; to which he was anſwered, Not a Shilling: Then he talked of 50,000 Men being ready to invade us; the Anſwer to which was, Let them come, we are ready to receive them: And the Third and laſt Hint was, that a large Army was ready to enter the Electorate of Hanover; to which Anſwer was given, We were in no Fear of that, or any Thing elſe they could do.

The King has been pleaſed to appoint Major General Crauford to be Governor of his Majeſty's Iſland of Belleiſle.

Yeſterday the Lord Viſcount Howe ſet out from his Houſe at Whitehall for Portſmouth, to take on him the Command of a Fleet.

June 18. Seven Ships of the Line are ordered to ſail immediately from Portſmouth, to join Com. Keppel.

Several Perſons are gone to Ireland, to make large Contracts for Cattle for Belleiſle.

The States of Holland, perceiving that all the Powers in Europe are either arming or already armed, incline to follow their Example; as Experience has taught them, that a Neutrality can never be reſpected, without a Force ſufficient to prevent its being deſpiſed, or invaded with Impunity.

The Letters from Paris obſerve, that their Hopes of Aſſiſtance from Denmark were entirely diſſipated; the State of their Finances rendering the Conditions of the Treaty impoſſible.

Our laſt Advices from Madrid inſinuate, that the Affairs of Italy will be ſettled ſome Time this Summer; and that his Catholic Majeſty is extremely deſirous that the Italian Princes and States may enter into a perpetual Confederacy for the Preſervation of Peace among themſelves, and the Keeping up a conſtant Force by Sea and Land, to protect them againſt the Turks.

We hear that the Cumberland Man of War, of 70 Guns, is loſt off Goa, in her Paſſage from Bombay to join Admiral Stevens. This Ship had been in the Eaſt-Indies eight Years.

From Dreſden we are informed, that the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick's Army is 20,000 ſtrong, and encamped between Ham and Dumelen.

The Friendſhip, Boyd, from Philadelphia to Liſbon, is taken and carried into Vigo.

By a Letter from Belleiſle, of the 5th Inſt. we are informed, that as Major-General Hodgſon, and another Officer, were viewing the Breach made in the Citadel, they perceived a Bomb perpendicular over their Heads, which fell on a Piece of Cannon they were leaning on; but they had the Precaution to fall both on their Faces in Time and luckily received no Hurt.

Yeſterday at Noon arrived an Expreſs from Paris to Monſ. Buſſy.

The Letters from Oporto, by the Wager Man of War, dated the 18th of May, ſay, that two Ships from South-Carolina for Oporto were taken and carried into Vigo, but do not mention their Names.

The Suſannah, from Oporto for Quebec, was retaken by the Modeſte Man of War the 24th ult. and is ſince arrived at Plymouth.

By Advices from Belleiſle we learn, that when the Garriſon ſurrendered, there were only two Guns remaining in the Citadel fit for Service: That three large Breaches had been made in the Wall; and that the Reduction of that Place has coſt us about 1000 Men.

The laſt Letters from Hamburgh adviſe, that the Ruſſians are expected to act with more Vigour this Campaign, than they have done ſince the Commencement of the War. The Czarina was ſo provoked on receiving an Account of the Treaty juſt concluded by the King of Pruſſia with the Grand Turk, that ſhe ſwore it ſhould coſt him dear; and immediately ſent a Courier to Vienna to aſſure the Empreſs Queen, that ſhe would employ all her Forces in Conjunction with her Majeſty's, to reduce the Pruſſian King to the Marquiſate of Brandenbourg.

Theſe Letters add, that there was no more Talk of the Daniſh Troops encamping in Holſtein; but that the People of Hambourg were nevertheleſs apprehenſive that the King of Denmark would, ſooner or later, aſſert his Claim to that City.

Extract of a Letter from Vienna, June 2.

"The Diſpoſitions that are making in all Parts, give Room to expect ſome News of the laſt Importance. General Laudohn is at the Head of 60,000 Men, and his Operations in Sileſia will be ſeconded by a Body of Ruſſians. The Court places ſo much Confidence in this General's Abilities, that when the Plan of Operations againſt Sileſia was forwarded to him, they ſent him Word, that they referred the Execution of it wholly to him; and, that he might not be thwarted in any of his Enterprizes by other Generals, he ſhould be ſubject to no Orders but thoſe which he ſhould receive directly from the Empreſs Queen."

Letters from the Hague adviſe, that it was ſaid by ſeveral foreign Miniſters at that Place, that the Congreſs was put off.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, June 12.

"Though the Diſpoſition of the Britiſh Court exactly correſponds with the King's ſincere Deſire to haſten the great Work of Peace, we know not yet what to think, either of the Congreſs at Augſbourg, or of the Negociations that are to be managed by Meſſ. Stanley and Buſſy. The latter, we are confidently told, is to labour principally to obtain a Suſpenſion of Arms; but the Britiſh Court will not conſent to this before the Surrender of Belleiſle; and if the Report be true, that they will liſten to no Accommodation without including the King of Pruſſia in it, it is probable that they will hear of no Suſpenſion of Hoſtilities, in which he is not comprehended."

A Letter from the Hague of the 12th Inſtant, ſays, that the Count d'Affry had received that Day, a Letter from the Prince de Soubiſe, and another from Marſhal Broglio, informing him, that they were at length ready to begin their Operations, and that he might expect ſoon important News.

Capt. Dixey, who arrived at Marblehead laſt Saturday Sennight, informs, that he ſailed from Liſbon the Firſt of June, and that on the 3d (being Wedneſday) Half an Hour after 6 o'Clock in the Morning, when but 10 Leagues from the Rock of Liſbon, he felt a moſt ſevere Shock of an Earthquake, which laſted about 3 Minutes. It made his Ship tremble in a ſurpriſing Manner, and put them into great Concern for themſelves, and much Fear of the Conſequences on Shore, the Shock was ſo very great.

NEW-YORK, Auguſt 10.

A Commiſſion is come over in the Packet, appointing CADWALLADER COLDEN, Eſquire, Lieutenant Governor of this Province; and, we hear, it is to be opened this Day in Council.

The Garriſon of Belleiſle, when it ſurrendered, conſiſted of 2300 Men.

The Harriot Packet, Capt. Brindley, was going into Falmouth as the General Wall came out.

Laſt Monday arrived here a re-taken Sloop of Bermuda, ſent in here by the Mars Privateer, Capt. Anſon.

Extract of a Letter from the Camp at Crown-Point, dated July 24.

"Our Employ here is working at the Fort: We have had the following regular Regiments. I give them as they arrived here from Canada, viz. The 40th Regiment, 42d or Royal Highlanders, 2 Battalions, 15th, 35th, 28th, 46th, 43d, 3d Battalion of Royal Americans expected, but not arrived; the 27th, who are garriſoned here, and as far down as Lake George. Each Regiment remains here about 3 Weeks or a Month. The 40th, 1ſt and 2d Battalion of Royal Highlanders, and 15th have marched to New-York, in the ſame Order they came; the reſt expect to follow ſucceſſively. Provincial Regiments here are the two Connecticut complete 200 New-Hampſhire, and but 100 of the Maſſachuſetts yet arrived. The Plan of the Fort is ſo large that it can ſcarcely be compleated this Year."

Capt. Thodey's Company, we hear, is ſafe arrived at Oſwegatchi. And that a Negro Man is to be hanged this Day at Albany for the Murder of a White Man.

PHILADELPHIA, Auguſt 13.

Private Letters from London, by the Packet, mention, That the French have agreed to cede all North-America and Gaudaloupe to us, and to ratify the ſame at the Concluſion of the Treaty of Peace, without ſo much as making Mention thereof at the enſuing Congreſs; only they want ſome Land North of the River St. Lawrenee, to cure Fiſh on; but the Engliſh, knowing them to be bad encroaching Neighbours don't chuſe they ſhould have a Foot: And that Peace ſeems at a Diſtance.

Captain Tull, who arrived here laſt Week from Teneriffe, on the 18th ult. in Lat. 29, Long. 64, ſpoke with Capt. Foſter, in a Brig belonging to Liverpool, bound from the Coaſt of Africa to South-Carolina or Virginia, with 116 Slaves on board all well.

We hear from New-York, that the Halifax Packet is now under Sailing Orders.

S. GALLOWAY, and Company.

Fairfax County (Virginia) August 11, 1761.

RAN away from a Plantation of the Subscriber's, on Dogue-Run in Fairfax, on Sunday the 9th Instant, the following Negroes, viz.

Peros, 35 or 40 Years of Age, a well-set Fellow, of about 5 Feet 8 Inches high, yellowish Complexion, with a very full round Face, and full black Beard, his Speech is something slow and broken, but not in so great a Degree as to render him remarkable. He had on when he went away, a dark colour'd Cloth Coat, a white Linen Waistcoat, white Breeches and white Stockings.

Jack, 30 Years (or thereabouts) old, a slim, black, well made Fellow, of near 6 Feet high, a small Face, with Cuts down each Cheek, being his Country Marks, his Feet are large (or long) for he requires a great Shoe: The Cloathing he went off in cannot be well ascertained, but it is thought in his common working Dress, such as Cotton Waistcoat (of which he had a new One) and Breeches, and Osnabrig Shirt.

Neptune, aged 25 or 30, well-set, and of about 5 Feet 8 or 9 Inches high, thin jaw'd, his Teeth straggling and fil'd sharp, his Back, if rightly remember'd, has many small Marks or Dots running from both Shoulders down to his Waistband, and his Head was close shaved: Had on a Cotton Waistcoat, black or dark colour'd Breeches, and an Osnabrig Shirt.

Cupid, 23 or 25 Years old, a black well made Fellow, 5 Feet 8 or 9 Inches high, round and full faced, with broad Teeth before, the Skin of his Face is coarse, and inclined to be pimpley, he has no other distinguishable Mark that can be recollected; he carried with him his common working Cloaths, and an old Osnabrigs Coat made Frockwise.

The two last of these Negroes were bought from an African Ship in August 1759, and talk very broken and unintelligible English; the second one, Jack, is Countryman to those, and speaks pretty good English, having been several Years in the Country. The other, Peros, speaks much better than either, indeed has little of his Country Dialect left, and is esteemed a sensible judicious Negro.

As they went off without the least Suspicion, Provocation, or Difference with any Body, or the least angry Word or Abuse from their Overseers, 'tis supposed they will hardly lurk about in the Neighbourhood, but steer some direct Course (which cannot even be guessed at) in Hopes of an Escape: Or, perhaps, as the Negro Peros has lived many Years about Williamsburg, and King-William County, and Jack in Middlesex, they may possibly bend their Course to one of those Places.

Whoever apprehends the said Negroes, so that the Subscriber may readily get them, shall have, if taken up in this County, Forty Shillings Reward, beside what the Law allows; and if at any greater Distance, or out of the Colony, a proportionable Recompence paid them, by

GEORGE WASHINGTON.

N. B. If they should be taken separately, the Reward will be proportioned.

RELIGION, the crowning Excellence of intelligent Nature, claims the Approbation and cloſe Attention of every reaſonable Being, who expects future Bliſs. We are bound from Principles of Gratitude and Intereſt to promote the Honour and Worſhip of the ſupreme Mind, as neceſſary to our own Proſperity, the Good of Society, and future Happineſs of Man. Animated by theſe intereſting Motives, we, of the Preſbyterian Perſuaſion in this Town, deſire, not from Party Views, but from real Principle, to purchaſe a Lot of Ground to erect a decent Church for Divine Service, in which we may worſhip GOD according to our Conſciences. Upon Enquiry we find ourſelves as yet inſufficient to raiſe ſuch a Sum as is neceſſary to accompliſh ſuch an important Deſign, beg Leave therefore to ſollicit the Generoſity of our Fellow-Chriſtians to aſſiſt and encourage us in compleating a ſmall Lottery, at a Time when the Benevolence of our Countrymen is ſo well tried in this Way. We hope our Claim to the public Attention is equal to any that has ſollicited their Notice, and humbly expect that we ſhall meet with general Encouragement.
